

$3.7 Billion and Growing

A summary of the Environmental Horticulture Industry's impact on the New England economy... January 2000

Acknowledgments

The New England Nursery Association, Inc. would like to recognize Dr. Leonard Perry of the University of Vermont, and Dr. Lois Berg Stack of the University of Maine, for their herculean efforts in conducting this inaugural survey. Special thanks are extended to the New England Grows Educational Fund and the Horticultural Research Institute for the grant awards that made the study possible. Additional thanks to the New England state association leaders from Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont, who consulted on the survey. And, finally, many thanks to the thousands of industry professionals who participated in this historic study.
